A JOURNEY INTO UNITY

WHOLEWORLD-VIEW

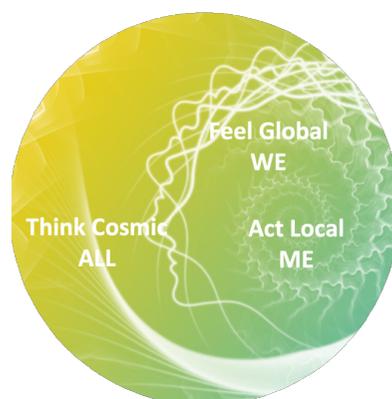

A WHOLEWORLD-VIEW UNIFYING FRAMEWORK

A WholeWorld-View is an evolutionary framework that invites global change makers to explore and communicate unity consciousness. It is based on the spiral of consciousness that moves our focus dynamically between ME, WE and ALL levels of communication and engagement.

The purpose of this framework is to provide a structure within which we can understand, experience and embody unity.

The framework can be seen as a spiral of consciousness that moves us dynamically between Head, heart and hands. We call this, Think Cosmic, Feel Global, Act Local.

Each level of the framework has a story, an adventure and a path of action.

Worldview

A worldview is the set of beliefs about reality that ground and influence someone's perceiving, thinking, feeling and doing. It's someone's framework for experiencing, making decisions and behaving in the world.

A worldview could also be described someone's mindset, outlook on life and values; informed by cultural, faith and religious, social and experiential factors.

At a WholeWorld-View (www.WholeWorld-View.org), we believe that an emerging and positive transformation of global society will accelerate when enough of us expand our current identity and worldview from Me to include We and All.

WHAT'S YOUR CURRENT
WORLD-VIEW
FOCUS?

Conscious Evolution

Our Planet is calling to us to WAKE UP: rapid climate change and environmental destruction is reflecting the need to expand our awareness.

Our unsustainable interactions with each other, resulting in inequality, injustice and conflict are calling us to GROW UP and change our behaviours.

The damage we have caused to ourselves and our planet is calling us to regeneratively CLEAN UP and co-creatively SHOW UP.

A WholeWorld-View, by serving our understanding, experiencing and embodying unity awareness, aims to empower all the above, and facilitate us to LINK UP and LIFT UP to consciously evolve.

Understanding, Experiencing and Embodying Unity

There are five steps, tempos and rhythms in the dance towards a WholeWorld-View. This is a spiral dance and the steps are often moved through simultaneously.

1. Understanding Unity – Mind and consciousness is what we and the whole world are.
2. Understanding Evolution – Our Universe exists to evolve. Understand what it means to be human and our evolutionary potential.
3. Experiencing Unity in Diversity – Living our natural unique diversity in our global and universal family of unity.
4. Embodying Unity – Understand, Experience, Embody our Story of Me in We and All.
5. Living Our Evolutionary Purpose – Re-member and reconnect to our authentic evolutionary impulse and purpose.

Think Cosmic, Feel Global, Act Local – The Story

WholeWorld-View stories help us understand our unique diversity within the unity of evolution. They help us to tune into the evolutionary impulse that is unfolding around us on Earth in these transformative times.

Think Cosmic

As a species, never before have we had so much evidence that we are living in an interdependent and in-formed Universe that not only exists and evolves as a unified entity – but exists TO evolve.

We are coming to realize that mind and matter are unified—and our Universe is a great thought rather than a great thing. Leading edge science is discovering that separation is an illusion. That mind and consciousness holographically in-forms the co-creation of all realities and states of existence. Every micro aspect of existence contains the in-forming codes of the macro Universe.

We are alive in a critical evolutionary moment.

After 13.8 billion years of evolution, our Universe has birthed us as a self-aware species. We now have a choice to become unity-aware beings and conscious co-creators with our Universe and its ongoing evolutionary impulse. As we collectively re-member the multi-dimensional and unified All of the Cosmos, we can choose.

Feel Global

We are all indigenous to Earth—we are Gaia’s children.

Like a healthy resilient ecosystem, within the wholeness of the all, our global experience is manifested through the radical diversity, uniqueness and purpose of Me and We.

The illusionary story of separation is breaking down. We either evolve together globally or become extinct as a species. In these pivotal times of breakdown and breakthrough, we can re-member and ‘feel’ our inherent connection to each other and Gaia, and co-create a thriving future for all. It is time to evolve through love, from the inside out.

While the process of re-membering unity is unique to each individual, all are paths on the same journey of inner and outer evolution. We can choose to become unity aware beings, and in acting local and feeling global, experience and embody wholeness. We are indeed in this together. We always have been.

Act Local

In the coming years, the choices of each and all of us will determine the fate of our species and potentially all life on Earth. Globally, change agents are designing, developing and manifesting unity-based communications and structures in numerous areas, including; finance and economics, science and technology, education, holistic wellness, politics, governance, justice, peace, media, arts and culture, architecture and social entrepreneurship.

Locally, individuals and communities are embarking on quests and practices of 'sacred normality'—reconnecting to each other, Gaia and the universal pulse of evolution that flows through us. We are remembering what it means to co-create lives of meaning, purpose and responsibility. Communities are rediscovering their ability to find local solutions to global challenges. Crisis breeds opportunity and innovation.

The 8 principles of co-creativity (Relativity, Resolution, Reflection, Resonance, Change, Choice & Consequence, Conservation and Concession), are emerging as a structure through which local action is aligned to global / universal vision. We are waking up, growing up, cleaning up, showing up – and linking and lifting up. To begin to share a new story of what it means to be human.

Think Cosmic, Feel Global, Act Local The Adventure

WholeWorld-View adventures take us from understanding the story into experiencing it for ourselves. They are invitations to us all to embark on our unique diverse quests into the world and help to transform it through our individual and collective experiences of unity.

The Paths To Action

WholeWorld-View paths to action take the abundance of experience gathered through the adventures and translate them into embodied action.
This is where you begin to live as diversity in unity.

We also describe these inter-weaving paths
as the 8 eSSences of Self and Spirited Leadership.

THEY ARE

1. Servant-leader—servereignty of serving the good of the whole rather than the sovereignty of controlling the whole.
2. Soul-model—authentically embodying the highest coherence of the whole rather than role- modelling from an ego-based sense of status.
3. Seer—perceptive co-creator of the highest purpose and meaning of the organization.
4. Sensor—sensing what is calling to come through and emerge, and then responding and expressing rather than controlling.
5. Shaper—facilitating the emergent evolutionary ‘shape’ and embodiment of the organization/ organism.
6. Space-holder—enabling inclusivity and individual/ collective worth, value and meaning. And sometimes:
7. Stirrer—intervening as, when and how sensed to co-enable progressive and optimal, positive change.
8. Shaker—intervening as, when and how sensed to initiate (r)evolutionary change.

CHOOSE YOUR OWN INTER-WEAVING PATH OF ACTION

Aiming to empower the understanding, experiencing and embodying of unity awareness for conscious evolution.
